

This photo shows ISOLATION and also utilizes the rule of thirds in the placement of the skull in relationship to the background. It would be acceptable to draw this exactly as the photo shows.

This photo shows MOVEMENT and CONVERGENCE. However, it would be more successful if there was more negative space on the right side to create ASYMMETRICAL BALANCE. Therefore, when drawing, the artist has chosen a paper size that will allow for more space on the right.